Reporting a Crime or Emergency

The University encourages accurate and prompt reporting of all criminal actions, emergencies or other incidents occurring on campus, on other property owned by the University, or on nearby public property to the appropriate administrator and appropriate police agencies. Such a report is encouraged even when the complainant of a crime elects not to make a report or is unable to do so.

All crimes occurring on or near Chicago State University property should be reported immediately to the Chicago State University Police Department at 773 895 2111. A dispatch is available 24/7.

If a crime is in progress or there is some other situation posing imminent danger, local law enforcement can be reached by dialing 773 895 2111 (CSU) or 911 (Chicago Police Department (CPD)).

Students, staff, and visitors should also report situations to one of the campus security authorities identified above. Once reported, the individual may also be encouraged to report the situation to the appropriate police agency. If requested, a University staff member will assist in making the report to police.

Anonymous incident reports can also be made by dialing 773 821 2882.

Confidential Reporting

The University will protect the confidentiality of complainants. Only those with a need to know the identity for purposes of investigating the crime, assisting the complainant or disciplining the responding party will know the identity of the complainant.

Chicago State University is committed to respecting the privacy of all parties involved. Some level of disclosure, however, may be necessary to ensure a complete and fair investigation. Although Chicago State University will comply with requests for confidentiality to the extent possible, no promise of non action or anonymity can be made once a complainant has been reported. Chicago State University has a legal duty to conduct an investigation. Information will be released on a need to know basis. Within these constraints, all parties involved are requested to maintain confidentiality and respect privacy. Publicly available records will be permissible by law. Students may speak confidentially to licensed mental health counselors employed by Chicago State University to provide counseling services in the Counseling Centers as well as to the Chicago State University Chaplain. These resources provide students who maybe interested in bringing a complaint of sexual misconduct or harassment with a confidential place to discuss their concerns.

Anonymous reports may be made with the Title IX Coordinator in the Office of Legal Affairs (773 895 2462) or by calling the anonymous tip hotline

Officers are responsible for reporting and investigating all crimes, issuing traffic citations, parking tickets, responding to medical emergencies, traffic accidents involving University property or injury, reports of fire, as or offense, the next of kin of such complainant shall be treated as the alleged complainant for purposes of the paragraph.

The previous paragraph does not apply to complainants of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking because under the Violence Against Women Act both the accused and accuser in these cases are given the results without the need to make a written request.

For less than 50 kilograms of marijuana, the term of imprisonment shall not be more than five years, and the fine shall not be more

Other "sexual assault" crimes

Risk Reduction

If you find yourself in an uncomfortable sexual situation, these suggestions may help you reduce your risk: S

Recruit help from others if necessary.
Be honest and direct.
Keep yourself safe.

If things get out of hand, do not hesitate to contact the police.

Other Information Covered by the PPAP

The PPAP also provides information on possible sanctions and protective measures that may be imposed following a determination that an offense of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking has occurred, an explanation of the disciplinary procedures that will be followed when one of these offenses is alleged, the rights of the parties in such a proceeding, available resources, and other pertinent information. Much of this information is set forth in the upcoming sections of this security report.

Ongoing Prevention and Awareness Campaign

The University also conducts an Ongoing Prevention and Awareness Campaign (OPAC) aimed at all students and employees. This campaign covers the same material as provided in the PPAP but is intended to increase the understanding of students and employees on these topics and to improve their skills for addressing the offenses of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

PPAP and OPAC Programming Methods

The PPAP and OPAC are carried out in a variety of ways, using a range of strategies and, as appropriate, targeting specific audiences throughout the University. Methods include, but are not limited to: presentations, online training modules, distribution of written materials, periodic email blasts, and guest speakers. A summary of this programming is provided below.

New students receive education on the prevention of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking through a presentation by the Office of Student Affairs and the Chicago State University Police Department during orientation. All new employees are required to complete an online training module on these topics upon hire and are required to retake the online training each year.

As part of its ongoing campaign, the University uses a variety of strategies, such as in-person presentations by sexual assault organizations, email blasts with pertinent information, portal announcements, etc. While programming occurs throughout the year, the University also offers educational sessions and literature in coordination with nationally recognized observances such as Sexual Assault Awareness Month and Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Procedures to Follow if You are a Complainant of Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking

If you are a complainant of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, go to a safe place and call 911 or the Chicago State University Police Department at 773 095 2111. You may also contact the University's Title IX Coordinator at 773 095 2462 or titleix@csu.edu.

Complainants will be notified in writing of the procedures to follow, including:

1. To whom and how the alleged offenses should be reported (contact the Title IX Coordinator or refer to the other resources listed in this report).
2. The importance of preserving evidence that may be necessary to prove the offense in a criminal and ~~other~~ civil court.

AccommodationandProtectiveMeasures

TheUniversitywill provide written notification to complainantsand the responding party about options for, and available assistance in, changing academic, living, transportation, and working situations or protective measures. Supportive measures are available for either party regardless of whether the complainant chooses to report the crime to campus security or local law enforcement or files a formal complaint.

Requests for accommodations or protective measures should be made to the Title IX Coordinator at titleix@csu.edu. The Title IX Coordinator is responsible allegations raised in the Formal Complaint by agreement of the parties. Administrative Adjudication as specified in "Administrative Adjudication" is a form of informal resolution.

After receiving the written notice specified in this paragraph, each party must voluntarily provide written consent to the Title IX Coordinator, before the informal resolution may commence. During the pendency of the informal resolution process, the investigation and adjudication processes that would otherwise occur are stayed and all related deadlines are suspended. If the parties reach a resolution through the informal resolution process and the Title IX Coordinator agrees that the resolution is not clearly unreasonable, the Title IX Coordinator will reduce the terms of the agreed resolution to writing and present the resolution to the parties for their written signature. Once both parties and the Title IX Coordinator sign the resolution, the resolution is final, and the allegations addressed by the resolution are considered resolved and will not be subject to further investigation, adjudication, remediation, or discipline by the University, except as otherwise provided in the resolution itself, absent a showing that a party induced the resolution by fraud, misrepresentation or other misconduct or where required to avoid a manifest injustice to either party or to the University.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the form of informal resolution is Administrative Adjudication as specified in "Administrative Adjudication," there shall not be an agreed resolution requiring the parties' signatures; instead, the determination issued by the administrative officer shall serve as the resolution and conclude the informal resolution process, subject only to any right of appeal. With the exception of a resolution resulting from the Administrative Adjudication process specified in "Administrative Adjudication," all other forms of informal resolution pursuant

Rights of the Parties in an Institutional Proceeding

During the course of the process described in the previous section, both the complainant and the responding party are entitled to:

1. A prompt, fair and impartial process from the initial investigation to the final result.
 - o A prompt, fair and impartial process is one that is:
 - Completed within reasonably prompt timeframes designated by the University's policy, including a process that allows for the extension of timeframes for good cause, with written notice to the complainant and the responding party of the delay and the reason for the delay.

Conducted in a manner that:

- r Is consistent with the University's policies and transparent to the complainant and the responding party.

r Includes information given to the complainant and the responding party.

Anyone with information warranting a timely warning should immediately report the circumstance to:

Chicago State University Police Department, 773-095-2111

The University has communicated with local law enforcement requesting notification of reports or information warranting a timely warning.

Emergency Response

The University has an emergency management plan designed to ensure there is a timely and effective response in the event of a significant emergency or dangerous situation occurring on campus involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of members of the campus community. Such situations include, but are not limited to: tornadoes, bomb threats, chemical spills, disease outbreaks, fires, active shooters, etc. The University has communicated with local police requesting their cooperation in informing the University about reported situations that may warrant an emergency response.

Students, staff and visitors are encouraged to notify the Chicago State University Police Department of any emergency or potentially dangerous situation.

The Chicago State University President in collaboration with other appropriate personnel, will determine who should be notified, and will, without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist a complainant or to contain response to or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Depending on the segments of the campus the notification will target, the content of the notification may differ. When appropriate, the content of the notification will be determined in consultation with local authorities. Also, as appropriate, the notification will give guidance as to whether the recipients should shelter in place or

Methods for Issuing Timely Warnings and Emergency Notifications
