

The Department of Occupational Therapy offers a combined Bachelor of Health Sciences (BHS) Pre-Occupational Therapy degree, which is a pre-professional degree designed to prepare students to enter the Master of Occupational Therapy (MOT) program at Chicago State University. The combined BHS/MOT curriculum allows students to enter the professional phase of the occupational therapy program as undergraduates (in their senior year) and supports the transition to a post-baccalaureate degree (MOT) in occupational therapy.